NEWS OF GREATER WESTERLY

Frank Howe Falls Unconscious While Waiting for a Train—Funeral of Mrs. Francis Sheffield, for Eighty Years a Reader of The Courier-Bulletin—William H. Singer Dies from Injuries—Noank Boy Struck by A. Auto.

Frank Howe, foreman of the repairing department of the C. B. Cottrell & Sons' plant, was suddenly stricken unconscious while at the railway station Saturday night, awaiting a train to make a visit to Philadelphia. Mr. Howe was found by a boy named Michael Sullivan lying on the floor of the toilet room, and his condition was reported to Ticket Agent Golden.

Mr. Howe was taken into the waiting room, and Dr. Scanlon was summoned. He found that the unconscious man was afflicted with uremic convulsions. He was taken to his home, accompanied by the physician, and it was several hours before he regained consciousness. Saturday he had fully recovered and was able to be about as usual.

An illustration of the difficulty in identifying persons whose expression is changed while in a state of unconsciousness is given in this case. One of the friends of Mr. Howe, who was to make the trip to Philadelphia with him, assisted in handling Mr. Howe at the station, and even removed his collar and necktie, but never for a moment suspected the unconscious man was his friend.

Welcome Fiddler, who has been conducting a lunch room in Mystic, and who sold that which intoxicates on the side and contrary to law, was before Judge Letimer in the Groton town court, Saturday, charged on two counts with violation of the liquor laws.
Prosecution was brought as a result of a liquor seizure recently made by Deputy Sheriff Tubbs, upon information furnished by Frank Decker.

Fiddler pleaded guilty to both counts and was fined $75 and costs, which he paid. In this case there was reversal of the old saw, "If you dance you must pay the fiddler."

George Clark, a former resident of Westerly, who had been dubbed by the New London police as the "Gentleman Bum," was arrested in the Old White-town last week and sentenced to sixty days in jail for violation of the liquor laws. Clark was formerly employed around stables in New London, but since the death of his father in Westerly by a fall from a ladder, nearly a year ago, George has not been employed.

Clark is no stranger to the police of Westerly, and has served time in the Washington county jail for offenses committed while a resident of Westerly.

The threatening weather of the early Sunday morning had no effect upon the attendance at the annual picnic of the Westerly lodge of Elks at Bright-man's pond. The members and friends were conveyed to the pond in barges and private conveyances. The shower was over by noon, and the picnic and the clam bake at 4 in the afternoon.

The funeral of Betsey D., widow of Francis Sheffield, took place Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home, in the Westerly Baptist church. She had resided since her marriage, seventy-five years ago, there was a large attendance of friends at the service, which was conducted by Rev. Samuel H. Cathart, of the Congregationalist

MADE WELL AND STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Bardston, Ky.—"I suffered from ulceration and other female troubles for a long time. Doctors had failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and I decided to try it. It cured my trouble and made me well and strong, so that I can do all my own work." Mrs. JOSEPH HALL, Bardston, Ky.

Another Woman Cured.

Christiana, Tenn.—"I suffered from the worst form of female trouble so that at times I thought I could not live, and my nerves were in a dreadful condition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me, and made me feel like a different woman. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold to suffering women."—MRS. MARY WOOD, R. F. D. 2.

If you belong to that countless army of women who suffer from some form of female ills, don't hesitate to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.
For thirty years this famous remedy has been the standard for all forms of female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, fibroid tumors, ulceration, inflammation, irregularities, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you want special advice write forth to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
It is free and always helpful.

church. Mrs. Forrest rendered vocal selections. The bearers were James E.
Kennedy, Walter Price, David P. Stillman, Eugene B. Pendleton, William Tapley and Merton Webster. Burial was in River Bend cemetery.

The Springfield Union of last Friday had this notice of Mrs. Sheffield's death: "Mrs. Betsey D. Sheffield, mother of Mrs. George W. Tapley, aged 91 years, died quite suddenly Thursday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Tapley, 343 State street, Springfield.
Mrs. Sheffield was born in Stonington, Conn., April 19, 1847, and was the wife of Hon. Francis Sheffield of Paw-catuck, Conn., to whom she was married at the age of 16. She had lived in the same house from which she will be buried, Sunday, for 75 years.

Three years ago she had the misfortune to break her hip while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tapley, at Watch Hill. She retained her genial disposition and untiring good nature, notwithstanding her suffering. She had spent the last three summers with Mr. and Mrs. Tapley and had enjoyed her daily rides around Springfield and the calls of many old and new friends.
Besides Mrs. Tapley, she leaves an only daughter, Marie W., and a son, Colonel Thomas D. Sheffield, both of Paw-catuck."

William H. Singer, the Pittsburg multi-millionaire who was injured in an automobile accident two weeks ago while on the shore road near Manas-tuck, spent the return trip from Narragansett Pier to Watch Hill, died Saturday morning at the New Watch Hill house. The body was forwarded to Pittsburg Saturday night, accompanied by the members of his family. Two special cars were attached to the Colonial express.

At the time Mr. Singer received the injuries that terminated fatally he was riding in the automobile of his son-in-law, Dr. Robert Milligan, and was accompanied by the doctor and members of the family.
Mr. Singer was 50 years of age, and a year ago had pronouncement of death by accident. At that time he gave $1,000.00 to each of his four children, and arranged for the disposition of his estate.

Eugene Burdick, son of Captain and Mrs. Walter Burdick, was struck by an automobile at Youngs Saturday afternoon. He was rendered unconscious, received several small cuts and bruises and a severe ankle. He was alighting from a Groton-Stonington trolley car at Spicer avenue, when an automobile driven by James Pitt came along at high speed. The driver tried to avoid hitting the boy, and in so doing smashed into a telegraph pole with great force, splitting the pole nearly in full length. The steel guards and tonneau of the automobile were wrecked. Mr. Pitt and the three ladies accompanying him were uninjured.

Mr. Pitt in explaining the accident said he was going at a fairly fast clip along Elm street, following the trolley car, and being enveloped in a cloud of dust, he could not see that the car had stopped and passengers alighted.
He tried to prevent the accident. He said he made every effort to prevent hitting the boy, but the machine was going too fast for the brakes to be effective.

Sunday afternoon the funeral of William D. Carpenter, who died Thursday, took place at his home in Beach street. Rev. Clayton A. Burdick officiated and burial was in the First Hopkinton cemetery. The bearers were Percy H. Trickett, William Lawton, Joseph Carpenter and Clarence Carpenter.

Miss Jeannie A. Barr and Harry E.
Pellett were married Friday afternoon at the residence of the bride's grandparents, in Pawcatuck street. Rev. S. M.
Comstock officiated, and the ceremony was witnessed only by members of the families. Miss Lillian Barr, sister of the bride, sang the wedding hymn, and Bert, uncle of the bride, was the best man.

The Carling tail-enders were defeated by the champion Stonington of the Rhode Island-Connecticut league, at Carpenter, Saturday, by a score of 3 to 1. It was a pitchers' battle. Rhodes for Stonington struck out nine batsmen and gave up four runs, four hits and two errors for eight to fan the wind. Scores by innings: Stonington ..... 0 0 0 1 0 1-2 Carolina ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-1

White Rock defeated Wakefield without much trouble at White Rock, and has the third place in the league standing, and is now to make effort to push into and beyond the title for leadership, now held by Westerly and Stonington. The hits were almost even, ten and nine in favor of White Rock. Scores by innings:
White Rock ..... 1 2 0 2 0 0 0-6 Wakefield ..... 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 0-2 league today (Monday) Westerly will play at White Rock in the morning and at Westerly in the afternoon.

Norwich at Stonington and Carolina at Wakefield in the morning and Carolina in the afternoon.

Mrs. Betsey D. Sheffield, whose funeral was held Sunday afternoon, was a reader of The Norwich Bulletin and The Courier for eighty years, and she took pride in saying that she never missed reading the paper daily since she was a child.

The funeral of Harris P. Chapman, who was killed by falling from the roof of his barn, was held Friday afternoon from his residence on the Shore road.

The services were conducted by Rev.
George W. Rigler of the First Baptist church. The bearers were Harry Pugh, Courtland Collins, Albert Langworthy, Albert Clark, John Kenyon and Otis Brown.

A band of gypsies passed through Westerly in their wagons Sunday and proceeded over the bridge into Pawcatuck. Then the female portion of the band were sent back into Rhode Island and visited the stores and offices in an endeavor to work the fortune telling act. For lack of encouragement, the women soon returned to their wagons and the start was made in the direction of New London.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

New Britain.—The receipts of the police department for peddlers' licenses during August amounted to $170.

Bantam.—Danbury group of the Epworth league of the New York East Conference will hold a convention at Bantam on Sept. 30.

Danbury.—The increase in the grand total of the city grand list, just completed by the assessors, over the list of last year is $35,605.

Plainville.—The Plainville Benefit society, organized among the Italian residents of this town, have planned for a big celebration on Monday, Sept. 20.

Ansonia.—The Inter-Town Dahlie association's plans for its annual show, which will be held at the City Hall auditorium, on Saturday, Sept. 18, are maturing satisfactorily.

Brantford.—Out of the fifty pupils who failed last June to attain the required standard for admission to the high school this fall, fifteen tried the examinations last week.

Waterbury.—The Knights of Columbus are arranging to have a big day here on Sunday, Sept. 26, when a delegate team from Brooklyn, N. Y., will come here to initiate a large number of candidates.

Berlin.—The postoffice has begun to feel the busy season previous to the opening of the fair and is hard pressed with mail sent out by Secretary Leland Gwatkin. About three thousand letters were mailed Thursday.

Fairfield.—Claiming that Jessie Livington Forbes of Fairfield, wife of A.
Holland Forbes, the aviator, has alienated the affections of her husband, Ernest Forbes, Ida Rowley of New York city has instituted suit for $75-000 in the superior court.

Derby.—The Woman's Relief corps has voted to invite the new corps that has been organized in Bridgeport to visit it on Wednesday evening, Sept.
15, and also to invite the Ansonia corps and Kellogg post to be present on the same evening.

Sulpho-Napthol
Substitute
Pine as much as 12-5
No Sulphur—No odor
No Stains—No spots
No Acid—No fumes
No Harm—No danger
No Cost—No trouble
No End—No limit
Sulpho-Napthol
is the only safe and effective substitute for Pine.

Just Figure It Out

For the sake of argument, suppose it is true that a bottle of some substitute that your dealer tells you is "just as good" is twice as large and can be bought for the same price as the genuine Sulpho-Napthol, who comes out ahead?

The manufacturer of the substitute first, the dealer next, but in the end, most of all, when people realize their mistake.

CABOT'S SULPHO-NAPHTHOL

The reason that nothing can equal this original "Liquid Cleanser" for annihilating dirt, grease, and grime, is that it is made with the least labor, everything that can be washed with water, provided a few drops of Sulpho-Napthol, one per cent solution does the work. If you buy substitutes, ten to twenty per cent must be employed.

In the end you must then pay five to ten times as much for the substitute and will never get the same results.

Sold only in yellow packages by druggists and grocers. 10c, 25c, 50c, and $1.00.
